WHO: ABN Group Managing Director Dale Alcock and The Big Issue Vendor.

WHY: The Big Issue is a not-for-profit social enterprise that develops solutions to help homeless, marginalised and disadvantaged people positively change their lives. It aims to break down barriers around homelessness and poverty, while empowering those experiencing disadvantages to help themselves and change their lives.

It's also a fantastic read with content from local and international writers covering stories from the arts & culture, celebrity, health & lifestyle, current affairs, the natural world and the whimsical.
