

June 2022

DAHSW response to negative media coverage regarding @kyreeloveshomes and their build timeframes.

Quotes attributable to Steve Hancock, General Manager Dale Alcock Homes South West.

“The Australian building industry continues to face significant challenges, including global and domestic supply chain disruptions and escalating materials and trade costs.

Dale Alcock Homes South West works daily to the best of our ability through these industry challenges to continue delivering the dream of home ownership and are committed to keeping our clients informed along the way.

We are committed to supporting all our clients throughout their building journeys, providing them with clear and consistent communication around industry-wide delays and their build timeframes. We continue to engage with XX in person to address their concerns.

We look forward to completing and delivering XX their home to the highest quality and standard.”

ENDS

Dale Alcock Homes South West is proudly part of the ABN Group.

Established in Perth in 1978, the ABN Group is Australia’s leading construction, property and finance company.

The ABN Group operates 20 businesses covering new home design and construction, commercial property, residential property development, property financial planning and mortgage broking, conveyancing, plumbing, concreting, roofing, ceiling and wall fixing, kitchen design and installation.

FURTHER INFORMATION:

Libby Alcock
Group Marketing Manager, ABN Group
lalcock@abngroup.com.au